Job Description:

Are you looking for a local job opportunity and want to start ASAP? Robertson Mfg. Ltd. continues to grow in exciting directions, and we are looking for high energy, positive thinking, and motivated individuals to join our production team.

Since our early beginnings, RML has built and maintained an outstanding reputation for dedicated customer service, superior quality products and technical expertise. We are proud of this reputation, the stability of our operations, and our ability to be innovative yet competitive. It is why we have developed into one of Western Canada's largest suppliers of core boxes and other wooden mining and construction supplies.

Robertson Mfg Ltd is offering Full Time positions, that are supported by training, incentive piece work opportunities and great benefits package. We are committed to providing you with working conditions to be clean, orderly, safe, and guided by competent and ethical management.

Successful individuals will be offered the opportunity to positions that require extra motivation but reward with chance of much higher pay. These positions will require the use of multiple pneumatic tools and require physical strength and mental focus.

Robertson Mfg Ltd is also looking for individuals to cut, stack and organize plywood and lumber. They will be asked to use multiple saws (MITRE, multi-rip, dado and table) along with other tools and equipment. Component pieces will be cut and organized into carts for assembly. Experience with tape measure is required along with basic math skills.

How to Apply: No walk-ins or calls – please apply through email.
